

COURSE GUIDE

HLTAID003 – Provide First Aid

Unit Description and Target Group

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to provide a first aid response to a casualty.

The unit applies to all workers who may be required to provide a first aid response in a range of situations, including community and workplace settings.

Delivery mode and location

This course is delivered in our classroom at 12 Overland Drive, Narre Warren, 3805 or approved workspaces.

Course Duration

This course will be conducted over two days (7 hours per session) of face-to-face training and assessment.

Award Issued

A Statement of Attainment (Certificate) will be provided for the successful completion of the following course:

- HLTAID003 Provide First Aid

Career Outcomes

Students who complete Provide First Aid HLTAID003 are commodities to an array of organisations looking to hire staff. There are multiple jobs one can enter just by being qualified in First Aid alone.

Having a First Aid ready worker creates a safe environment for the organisation they work for, as well as those around them. If an emergency situation were to arise, there is an individual ready to act promptly to potentially save a co-worker or customers life.

Course Structure

Provide First Aid contains both theoretical and practical elements within its course guide. Students are required to demonstrate a satisfactory level for each given element to obtain a Statement of Attainment.

- Disability and access issues;
- Language barriers;
- Language, literacy and numeracy issues;
- Employment issues; and/or
- Any other issues that may affect their ability to achieve their training goals.

Provision of additional support services will be provided where necessary to enable students to participate in the same way as any other person regardless of whether support services have been required.

Where there is perceived difficulty in achieving learning goals, the trainer will discuss these issues with the student. The student will be provided with information about possible alternative courses, additional tools and resources available, and options and choices for accessing a supportive network.

The information provided will vary depending on the individual needs of the student.
